The Man Who Mistook His Job for His Life Jul 21 2020 A revolutionary approach to understanding the emotional dynamics within our working lives. 'Nobody understands the everyday madness of working life better than Naomi Shragai. This book should be read by everyone who ventures anywhere near an office' - Lucy Kellaway You probably don't realise this, but every working day you replay and re-enact conflicts, dynamics and relationships from your past. Whether it's confusing an authority figure with a parent; avoiding conflict because of past squabbles with siblings; or suffering from imposter syndrome because of the way your family responded to success, when it comes to work we are all trapped in our own upbringings and the patterns of behaviour we learned while growing up. Many of us spend eighteen formative years or more living with family and building our personality; but most of us also spend fifty years - or 90,000 hours - in the workplace. With the pull of the familial so strong, we unconsciously re-enact our personal past in our professional present - even when it holds us back. Through intimate stories, fascinating insights and provocative questions that tackle the issues that cause us most problems - from imposter syndrome and fear of conflict to perfectionism and anxiety - business psychotherapist Naomi Shragai will transform how you think about yourself and your working life. Based on thirty years of expertise and practice, Shragai will show you that what is holding you back is within your gift to change - and the first step is to realise how you, like the rest of the people you work with, habitually confuse your professional present with your personal past.

Flamin' Hot Mar 29 2021 Read the story everyone is talking about: how a janitor struggling to put food on the table invented Flamin' Hot Cheetos in a secret test kitchen, breaking barriers and becoming the first Latino frontline worker promoted to executive at Frito-Lay. Richard Montañez is a man who made a science out of walking through closed doors, and his success story is an empowerment manual for anyone stuck in a dead-end job or facing a system stacked against them. Having taken a job mopping floors at Frito-Lay's California factory to support his family, Montañez took his future into his own hands and created the world's hottest snack food: Flamin' Hot Cheetos. This bold move not only disrupted the food industry with some much-needed spice, but also shook up a corporate culture in which everyone stayed in their lane. When a top food scientist at Frito-Lay sent out a memo telling sales and marketing to kill the new product before it made it to the store shelves—jealous that someone with no formal education beyond the sixth grade could do his job—Montañez was forced to go rogue once again to save his idea. Through creative thinking, community building, and a few powerful mindset shifts, he outsmarted the naysayers who tried to get in his way. Flamin' Hot proves that you can break out of your career rut and that your present circumstances don't have to dictate your future.

I Moved Your Cheese Oct 16 2022 The author of Negotiating the Impossible "tackles our assumptions about business and life with humor, zest, and wisdom in this delightful fable" (Daniel H. Pink, New York Times-bestselling author). If you were a mouse trapped in a maze and someone kept moving the cheese, what would you do? In a world where most mice dutifully accept their circumstances, ask no questions, and keep chasing the cheese, Deepak Malhotra tells an inspiring story about three unique and adventurous mice—Max, Big, and Zed—who refuse to accept their reality as given. I Moved Your Cheese reveals what is possible when we finally discard long-held and widely accepted assumptions about how we should live our lives. After all, achieving extraordinary success, personal or professional, has always depended on the ability to challenge assumptions, reshape the environment, and play by a different set of rules—our own. But rejecting deeply ingrained beliefs is not easy. As Zed explains, "You see, Max, the problem is not that the mouse is in the maze, but that the maze is in the mouse." "Deepak Malhotra allows you to glimpse a world of your own making without the limits and barriers that others create." —Stephen R. Covey, New York Times-bestselling author of The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People "A magnificent story with a powerful message. I Moved Your Cheese Oct 12 2019 The problem with most self-help books is that they expect you to do all the work. You are required to read them, remember key-words, maybe even put their teachings into everyday practice. Even a book as seemingly to-the-point as Seven Steps to Having a Fabulous Life still expects you to take those seven steps. Not this self-help book. This is a self-help book for people who want to take no steps at all. This is a self-help book for people who prefer to lie on the sofa. In this short book, learn how to be anyone you want to be. Always wanted to be a woman from the Deep South with your own TV talk show? Read the chapter "Oprah -- Remember the Spirit and Make Mine a Double." Always wanted to possess the ancient wisdom of the Mayans and Incas? Turn to "Human Sacrifice, Drug Abuse, and Extinction -- Finding Your Inner Mayan." Author Darrel Bristow-Bovey has adapted the insights from such other popular works as Who Moved My Cheese? And Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus. Before, they may have appeared to be the same old shameless procession of nonsense, but in his new book Bristow-Bovey reveals the shining truth in all things. Oh, and hey, this book makes a good present.
